

New York Alt-Pop Musician Rachael Sage Back in the UK!

New York Alt-Pop Musician and 2005 Independent Music Award Winner (singer-songwriter) Rachael Sage returns to the UK November 15 - 23rd to play several shows in London, Cambridge, Norwich and Manchester. Sage, who made her UK debut last fall, has toured Germany and The Netherlands several times; she will be embarking on her first tour of Japan this December. Sage's music is intensely melodic with strong, poetic lyrics. Performing Songwriter Magazine describes her as "sexy, self-possessed and impressive," and calls her "a performer to be taken seriously, a force to be reckoned with." The Blistering Sun, to be released in the UK via MPress Records on 4th February 2008, boasts 15 tracks of "wildly expressive, moody, edgy folk" and reveals a restless spirit transforming chaos into opportunity. Her 8th album, "Chandelier", is due out in the US May 2008 and in the UK July 2008. To find out more please visit www.rachaelsage.com or www.myspace.com/rachaelsage.
