

OXJAM MUSIC FESTIVAL

Oxjam is a music festival with a difference. Each year thousands of music-lovers like you get involved, all across the UK, to raise money for Oxfam. This year the festival is happening throughout April - so get involved today.

We're asking musicians, promoters - in fact, everyone - to get together to make music, raise money and help end poverty. You don't need a big venue - the beauty of Oxjam is that hundreds of small events make one huge party. And you make it happen.

If you would like to get some top tips for putting on your event, making more money at it and meet up with other people doing Oxjam in your area - then these training sessions are for you.

OXJAM TRAINING DAYS

Ed and Claire from the Oxjam Team would love you to come along and swap ideas and contacts, get or give advice for organising your event and learn even more about Oxfam and Oxjam.

Places are limited and offered on a first come first served basis so drop us a line ASAP if you'd like to attend. We're really looking forward to meeting you.

Glasgow - Saturday 15 March - The Admiral Bar, Waterloo Street

Manchester - Sunday 16 March - MMU All Saints Campus

All sessions are 11am to 5pm. Please bring along a packed lunch and we'll do the teas and coffees.
