About the Author

Broccoli Music was asked to put a stage on at Myfest 2008. We came up with a great line up working with Xfm Uploaded, who we promote nights for. Gigsonairtv were going to film the gig, the festival was looking great.....then NAS events, the promoters, ran out of money to fund the event and pulled it last minute.... Bring on The All Day Break-Fest, a 12 hour mini festival with bands that should've been on our stage and involving Rockstar energy drinks, Bollocks To Poverty to showcase the best bands from our stage
