

Rod Stewart Show

The Rod Stewart Tribute by Bob Wyper has just completed the third part of the FOUR CORNERS tour, with visits to Brighton, Lossiemouth (near Inverness) and Rhualt, North Wales to be completed by two gigs in Norwich and Ipswich at the end of July. The show will then begin filling in all the gaps in the UK during the rest of 2008 and into 2009. East to West in Scotland will also be completed with Rosyth being added to last week's Greenock gig, leaving just Gretna, Annan and Dumfries to be scouted in the south. Just thought it was better to get the difficult gigs on the map before the price of diesel goes up any more. Thinking of buying a bus to get access to pink diesel :-)
